St Vincent's Hospice is looking to recruit a motivated, compassionate, and enthusiastic doctor to provide out of hours medical cover for our Inpatient Unit in Howwood.

Join our team in delivering high quality specialist palliative care to patients and families within our inpatient service. This role provides "first-on-call" medical cover for the unit, with support always available from a Consultant in Palliative Medicine.

This is an excellent opportunity for a doctor wishing to gain further experience in palliative medicine within a supportive multidisciplinary hospice environment, with opportunities for learning, teamworking and professional development.

Leadership and Service Development

- Out of hours cover for the Inpatient Unit
- Weekday on-call: Monday–Thursday, 5:00pm–8:00am
- Weekend on-call: Friday 5:00pm–Monday 8:00am
- The post forms part of an approximately 1 in 7 out-of-hours rota.
- Consultant support available at all times
- Non-resident on-call arrangement

Previous experience in palliative medicine, hospice care, general practice, acute medicine or elderly care would be welcomed but is not essential.

Essential

- Medical qualification
- Current GMC registration with licence to practise
- Medical indemnity cover appropriate for the advertised post

Desirable

- Postgraduate qualification (e.g. MRCP, FRCS, MRCGP)
- Some experience in palliative care

At St Vincent's Hospice, we are committed to providing compassionate, person-centred care to people living with life-limiting illness and supporting those important to them.
